

Privacy Policy

Introduction

Derek Coleman Associates Corporation (“Derek Coleman”, “us”, “we”, or “our”) is committed to protecting the privacy of our customers and users of our website and services (collectively, the “Services”). This Privacy Policy (“Policy”) describes how we collect, use, and disclose personal information through our Services.

Information Collection and Use

We collect personal information from our customers and users in order to provide them with the Services and to improve the quality of our Services. This information may include, but is not limited to, name, address, telephone number, email address, and payment information.

We may also collect information about how our customers and users use our Services, including but not limited to the pages visited, the frequency and duration of visits, and the devices used to access our Services. This information is collected through the use of cookies and other tracking technologies.

Information Sharing and Disclosure

We will not sell, rent, or share personal information with third parties, except as described in this Policy. We may share personal information with third-party service providers who assist us in providing the Services, such as hosting providers and payment processors. These third-party service providers are bound by contract to use the personal information only for the purpose of providing the Services on our behalf.

We may also disclose personal information as required by law, such as in response to a subpoena or court order, or to protect the safety, rights, or property of Derek Coleman, our customers, or others.

Security

We take reasonable measures to protect personal information from unauthorized access, use, or disclosure. However, no security measures can be 100% effective, and we cannot guarantee the security of personal information.

Changes to this Policy

We may update this Policy from time to time to reflect changes in our privacy practices. We will notify you of any material changes to this Policy by posting the revised Policy on our website. Your continued use of the Services after the effective date of the revised Policy constitutes your acceptance of the terms of the revised Policy.
